

STATION ARCADIA OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT

Trailer 3

KASS. There's too many buttons here! They don't even have different textures, ah, but I guess that's too much to ask for... this one's new.

[BUTTON CLICK]

(The following lines overlap each other, interspersed with static a la Terminus)

NIKKI. Only if you're working the East Side.

TEDDY. I don't want to talk about it.

PEACHES. I'm starting the new route in a few weeks, things should be able to take off then.

AXEL. I know it sounds crazy, but I think we can take her down.

BLUEBELL. The pick up is in the south east quadrant, just a couple of clicks from here.

CHARLIE. I know times are hard, just pool everyone's resources until this all blows over.

HAYYACYNTH. I'm not going to be challenged by some grad student who doesn't even know what she's doing.

MEMORIE. How much for the power cell?

JEBEDIAH. They don't stand a chance.

(It all shuts off abruptly)

KASS. Um... Yeah, that's new.

[BROADCAST ENDS AS KASS PUSHES A BUTTON.]
